Article from Cansell ARROW on students from Prince Rupert area

It is regrettable that there is so little material on the work of the Edmonton School in particular. There is however, an address presented by Rev.J.F.Woodsworth, Principal of the Edmonton School, and prior to that, of the Red Deer School. This may be found in the report of a session held in Toronto in 1939, entitled:

The North American Indian Today.
University of Toronto Press, 1943.

The book is available in the United Church Archives, and the title of the article is

"Problems of Indian Education in Canada."

Of course, the book contains many other topics of interest to the student of Indian Affairs in Canada, as they appeared in 1939.
